The Parable of the Loving Shepherd

- o Luke 15 Now the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear him. 2 And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying, "This man receives sinners and eats with them." 3 So he told them this parable: 4 "What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open country, and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it? 5 And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. 6 And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' 7 Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

Thank You

Before I spoke a word, You were singing over me.
You have been so, so good to me.
Before I took a breath, You breathed Your life in me.
You have been so, so kind to me.

Oh the overwhelming, never-ending, reckless love of God
Oh, it chases me down, fights 'till I'm found, Leaves the ninety-nine.
I couldn't earn it, I don't deserve it, still, You give yourself away.
Oh the overwhelming, never-ending, reckless love of God

When I was Your foe, still Your love fought for me.
You have been so, so good to me.
When I felt no worth, You paid it all for me.
You have been so, so kind to me.

*There's no shadow You won't light up,
Mountain You won't climb up, coming after me.
There's no wall You won't kick down,
No lie You won't tear down, coming after me.*

Thank You
